WE ARE BOOKING NOW FOR 2019! Year 1 and 2 Teachers (PCT)

Practical Classroom Management

This two day workshop will explore a range of strategies for supporting secondary teachers in helping students develop “learning classroom behaviour”. It will look at why and how students avoid learning behaviour, as well as equipping teachers with pro-active strategies that stop unwanted behaviour before it happens.

DAY ONE: Why we behave the way we do | Schemas | Needs | Values and belief

DAY TWO: Checkers | Research tells us | Managing your own emotions | The hard class | Scenarios

What 2018 participants say...

“This course is invaluable and translates the conceptual into the practical.”

“Very effective session, humorous + engaging, with down to earth practical strategies to use in the classroom.”

“Brilliant, clear and simple presentation with a comprehensive booklet. The humour Margaret used made it interesting and easy to stay engaged.”
